

KITSCH please MARKETPLACE

Kitsch please is a dedicated and curated online marketplace for buying and selling unique vintage treasures for the home.

WHY SELL ON KITSCH PLEASE?

If you've tried using other online platforms or classifieds sites to buy or sell vintage wares, you're likely to have faced the usual struggles. These sites are filled with a mass of products, in all kinds of categories, and usually irrelevant to what you're either looking to buy or sell. Your products are often lost in a sea of junk and who really has the time to sort through that?

Kitsch please provides a dedicated sales platform solely for vintage homewares and furniture in Australia.

Each listing that is submitted is checked and must meet certain standards of quality and relevancy. As a result your products are only seen in good company, in the right category, and by buyers who have come to look for a product just like yours.

So whether you're looking for a new sales platform, or if you're extending your current online sales presence, it really is a question of why not sell on Kitsch please?

WHY SELL ONLINE?

Whether you're a private seller or a small offline retail business, Kitsch please can help you take your products online. According to the ABS, over three quarters of Australians (76%) made a purchase online in 2013 and the numbers are growing.

Listing your items on Kitsch please can expose your product to a much wider audience, even if you do have your own online presence. You don't need any technical knowledge, and you can literally sell while you sleep, as purchases can be processed 24/7, 365 days per year.

WHAT CAN I SELL?

Kitsch please specialises in unique vintage treasures for the home, ranging from the 20s right through to the 90s.

This can include furniture, homewares, kitchenware, art, soft furnishings and other home décor.

If it's unique, pre-loved, handsome, and not run-of-the-mill, flat-packed and ready-to-build, then it likely has a home on Kitsch please.

WHAT DOES IT COST?

Listing your items on Kitsch please is free and easy. When your item has sold, Kitsch please deducts a final sale fee, which is a small percentage of the total sale.

This competitive fee covers sales commission and merchant fees.

For more details on selling on Kitsch please, visit WWW.KITSCHPLEASE.COM.AU/SELLING

KITSCH please MARKETPLACE

“I founded Kitsch please with a view to provide a dedicated platform to buy and sell unique vintage treasures, to simplify sustainable purchase decisions, and to empower people to find their own interior style - in any space and on any budget.”

Kitsch please is 100% Australian owned and operated by interior stylist and vintage lover, Samuel Clarke. All listings that are submitted are curated by Samuel to ensure buyers are presented with unique, relevant and quality vintage treasures for the home.

Prior to Kitsch please, founder and director Samuel Clarke worked in public relations, branding strategy, fashion styling and events and interior styling in both Australia and Canada.

 KITSCHPLEASEMARKETPLACE

 KITSCHPLEASE

 KPMARKETPLACE

WWW.KITSCHPLEASE.COM.AU

